CAMPUS LIFE: A YEAR IN REVIEW

CAMPUS LIFE:
Students becoming better people making better communities

2020-2021
Our Purpose

The Department of Campus Life is organized to support students and student groups in creating communities on campus that contribute to their success at Washington University. This includes learning how to get involved on campus through student groups, including fraternities and sororities, planning events and activities, and areas of self-governance through Student Union, the undergraduate student government. Washington University currently features over 400 registered student groups that create a vibrant and active campus environment.

Our Mission

Campus Life empowers students to discover and define themselves and their communities through advising, programs and resources.

Our Goals

Campus Life is focused on the following goals to enrich & support the campus community virtually and in-person:

- Build safe, accountable, equitable, and socially just communities
- Develop innovative engagement in virtual communities
- Radiate Campus Life through in-person and virtual experiences
- Increase branding and messaging to reach a broader audience

Our Values

Innovation
Discovering opportunities to change, expand, and streamline our impact

Inclusion
Building processes by including and listening to the voices of others

Growth
